

CALLING OUT THE CALLED

EMPHASIS MONTH

WEEK 2

PRAYER PROMPTS

1. Read Jeremiah 1 and ask God to remind those he will call that he is with them no matter how inadequate they may feel.
2. Read Acts 4:1-31 and pray that the Holy Spirit would work powerfully through prayer and God's Word to enable ordinary people to obey when he calls them.
3. Read 1 Corinthians 12 and pray that the same Spirit would equip different kinds of people to contribute their unique gifts in your church.
4. Pray for training opportunities that will benefit your church.
5. Pray for mentors to arise who can invest in those God will call.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think God appeared to Moses in such a dramatic way? (Moses' unique, dramatic calling indicates that he may have needed extra convincing from the beginning)
2. What's the difference between Moses' fear in 3:6 and his concerns in the rest of the story? How do we identify each type of fear in our own lives?
3. Which of Moses' concerns do you most identify with? How would shifting your attention away from yourself and onto God's power and direction impact your perspective on this issue?
4. When have you experienced God in the past working through you in spite of your insecurities? Why do you think God works through us when we're weak?
5. If God is calling you, how can others pray for you as you wrestle with these concerns?

CALLING OUT THE CALLED

EMPHASIS MONTH

WEEK 2

PRAYER PROMPTS

1. Read Jeremiah 1 and ask God to remind those he will call that he is with them no matter how inadequate they may feel.
2. Read Acts 4:1-31 and pray that the Holy Spirit would work powerfully through prayer and God's Word to enable ordinary people to obey when he calls them.
3. Read 1 Corinthians 12 and pray that the same Spirit would equip different kinds of people to contribute their unique gifts in your church.
4. Pray for training opportunities that will benefit your church.
5. Pray for mentors to arise who can invest in those God will call.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think God appeared to Moses in such a dramatic way? (Moses' unique, dramatic calling indicates that he may have needed extra convincing from the beginning)
2. What's the difference between Moses' fear in 3:6 and his concerns in the rest of the story? How do we identify each type of fear in our own lives?
3. Which of Moses' concerns do you most identify with? How would shifting your attention away from yourself and onto God's power and direction impact your perspective on this issue?
4. When have you experienced God in the past working through you in spite of your insecurities? Why do you think God works through us when we're weak?
5. If God is calling you, how can others pray for you as you wrestle with these concerns?

